Mr. Prime Minister

Please tell me ...

... you will live up to your election promise to work within the WTO to reduce the international quota tariffs and trade-distorting subsidies that are crippling Canadian farmers – especially barley growers. They cost us more than $1 billion every year and make it impossible to compete globally.

... you'll negotiate for a WTO agreement that would end the U.S. Farm Bill, which in 2005 gave $10.2 billion (US) to American corn growers and helped drive Canadian barley prices to new lows.

... you and your Trade and Agriculture ministers will engage immediately in current WTO negotiations, and show the world that "Canada is a trading nation and we agree to free trade concepts."

... you'll be there for me and for Canada's agricultural producers – 90% of us rely on world trade!

... your response. I look forward to hearing from you.
